

Choral Society's First Production a Musical Triumph

CROWDED AUDITORIUM GREETED FIRST APPEARANCE OF MUSICAL ORGANIZATION IN "THE ROSE MAIDEN"

The first concert of the recently organized Narberth Choral Society, given last Friday evening in the Auditorium of the High School, was a big success. But it was more than that—it was an amazingly big success!

Amazing in that, in addition to being a really fine and worth-while musical performance, it revealed an achievement which we believe most of the residents of our Borough, did not believe possible within the short space of six weeks, nor ever in a much longer period.

For if you will look back over the calendar to that period known as "the latter part of winter," you will discover that at that time, the Narberth Choral Society simply "was not!" At least, it was no more than an idea that had been simmering, in a more or less agitated way, in the minds of a small group of Narberth folks for a year or more. Then the idea crystallized and the Society came into existence. Members were recruited, Professor Clarence C. Nice offered his services as the Musical Director, an offer which was gladly accepted; Frederic H. Cowen's popular and melodious cantata "The Rose Maiden," was selected for the first concert, and, rehearsals were begun.

Well, the first concert was given last Friday evening, as already stated, and the five or six hundred people who filled the School Auditorium, were delighted with the performance. Spontaneous and generous applause was given each number—choruses and solos alike, and after the last number, Professor Nice and his singers were literally showered with praise and words of appreciation.

It is hard to know whether to begin with Professor Nice or the members of the Society. If you extended congratulations to the Professor, he thanked you but bowed and said the credit belonged to the chorus; and you fared no better when you attempted to compliment the singers—they "blamed" it on the Professor!

And perhaps thereby hangs the true story of how it was possible for the Society, in so short a time as six weeks, to give such a delightful and creditable concert—a mutual spirit of co-operation. So we shall pry no further into the mystery but content ourselves with attempting to tell those of our residents who missed this first concert of the Narberth Choral Society, that they did indeed miss a musical treat that was a decided credit to our community, and one of which any town, suburban or otherwise, might well be proud.

From a musical viewpoint the concert was not only pleasing, but technically of a very high order, bespeaking

NARBERTH SURROUNDED WITH HISTORIC POINTS OF INTEREST

At the meeting held last Tuesday, Mrs. John F. Develin, Regent of the Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, gave a most interesting talk on the Historic Spots of Lower Merion. Mrs. Develin is descended from some of the old settlers of the township and so is well versed in the history of this section of the county.

Mrs. Develin explained that Merion is a Welsh name given to a section of 10,000 acres by the Welsh, prior to the time of Wm. Penn. Wm. Penn and Dr. Wynne (from whom Wynnwood derives its name), came to this country together. The oldest church in the country being Merion Meeting House, built in 1695. General Washington stopped at General Wayne Inn, and Cornwallis had his horses shod at the black smith shop nearly opposite the Inn.

The borough of Narberth was originally a plot of ground of 2 acres given by Wm. Thomas to be called Elm, after a place in Wales. It was afterward changed to Narberth, also a Welsh name.

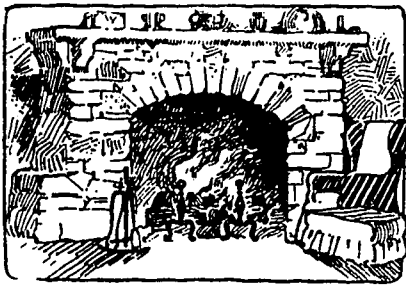

The original Lancaster road was what is now 54 street, Old Lancaster Road, Levering Mill road and part of Montgomery road.

The oldest railroad of the country also ran past Narberth. It went from the Delaware River to the Susquehanna. It passed Belmont Mansion, went through Bala and Cynwyd, passed General Wayne Inn, past Narberth and joined the present railroad at Ardmore. There were other points of interest.

"The Garden of The Shah"

Have you ever seen a Persian Garden? Well, if you have, you know of its beauty;—but still, it was not half so beautiful as this, "The Garden of the Shah," because the flowers in it are all human ones—and Narberth human ones besides. Of course you'll want to come,—the thing is to be sure and make sure of your tickets. Ask any Junior for some—she will gladly supply you, or if you are so unfortunate as not to know a Junior, get a ticket from Doc. Howard, and come get acquainted. The Posters which you see in the leading store windows of Our Town will tell you the whole story—A Musical Comedy, entitled, "The Garden of The Shah," by members of The Junior Section, Women's Community Club, to be held two nights—Friday, May 6th, and Saturday, May 7th, with dancing afterwards, at the reasonable admission price of 75 cents! Can you imagine seeing a wonderful show—perfectly staged, gowned, and coached—and then having a wonderful dance, all of an evening, at so small a cost? No, you cannot, so come and be convinced that it is possible—with the Juniors back of it.

THE FIRESIDE

Soon time for clean up week.

Hard to get the garden started this spring.

Bob Patten is able to get around pretty well now after being laid up since Feb. 4th with a broken leg.

Mrs. F. M. Livingstone, of Greenwich, Conn., has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Livingston, of Chestnut Avenue.

Those who heard Miss Florence Lewis sing here in February, will be glad to know she will carry the solo part in the cantata "The Shepherd Lady," at the School Auditorium, April 29th.

Dr. J. F. Monerief, the well-known southern scientist of Jacksonville, Florida, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Merritt Davis. Also Mrs. W. F. Hallam, of Lakeside, Florida, Both agreed that Narberth is a beautiful place.

Mr. and Mrs. Robley A. Warner, North Narberth Avenue have returned home from Miami, Florida, where they spent the past several weeks. They toured home by automobile and report a most delightful trip, having had perfect weather and fairly good roads.

The Boy Scouts are anxiously awaiting the arrival of the Fly Swatters to distribute in Narberth, from the Suburban Association, but as they have not as yet arrived, the Scouts suggest that all Narberthites improvise a fly-swatter until the real ones arrive, as now is the time where one swat saves nine.

REUNION OF FORMER FACULTY

Mrs. A. G. Compton spent a delightful week-end at Springtown, Pa., where she was one of a happy informal house-party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Melchoir.

Among others present were Miss Ada Clayton, Miss Ella Snively, Miss Minnie Apple, Miss Edna Cassel, Miss Louise Boynton, and Miss Edith Martin. All regretted the absence of Miss Nellie Wetherill who was prevented from coming by her mother's illness.

Even the weather did not mar the good time that was planned.

GIVE ME A DATE?

Make it Tuesday, the 26th, and see the Standard Bearer play, "A Surprise Party at Brinkley's."

Time—8.15 P. M.

Place—Methodist Church.

Tickets—25 cents. May be obtained from any Standard Bearer.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

"The Shepherd Lady" to be Given by Community Club Chorus

CANTATA AND A ONE-ACT PLAY, "THE NEIGHBORS" WILL BE PRESENTED ON FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 29th..

"The Shepherd Lady"

"The Shepherd Lady, the Cantata to be sung by the Community Club Chorus on April 29th, is a new work by Edith Lang, and was given its first production in Philadelphia by the Treble Clef in the foyer of the Academy of Music this month.

The work is an exquisite setting to Jean Ingelman's dainty poem of that name.

The solo part will be carried by Florence Lewis, of Philadelphia, supported by the Chorus of 25 voices. Those who heard Miss Lewis at her first appearance in Narberth were carried away by her beautiful voice and her charming personality. It will be a real treat to hear her again.

The Chorus is steadily growing and improving under the able leadership of Mr. Spratt. Miss Fanny Loos, the well known pianist, will be heard in piano solos, and the Club String Quartette will play during the intermission between the musicale and the play, "The Neighbors" which follows.

"The Neighbors"

Don't forget Friday evening, April 29, at eight o'clock. Of course you know it is then that "The Neighbors," by Zona Gale, is to be given by the Women's Community Club in the High School Auditorium. Wouldn't any woman like to know how to forget all about her buffalo bug as Miss Trot does? Wouldn't any man like to see himself as he is portrayed by the gentler sex? There is an All Star cast including:

Grandma, Miss Diantha Abel, Ezra Grandma ..... Mrs. C. A. Farmer
Mis' Diantha Abel, Mrs. W. E. Blodgett
Ezra Williams ..... Mrs. C. H. Shaw
Peter ..... Mrs. R. F. Wood
Inez ..... Mrs. F. S. Dunlap
Mis' Elmira Moran, Mrs. W. E. Davis
Mis' Trot ..... Mrs. J. S. Harris
Mis' Carry Ellsworth.

Mrs. W. A. Mitchell

The play is under the direction of Mrs. Norman Southworth.

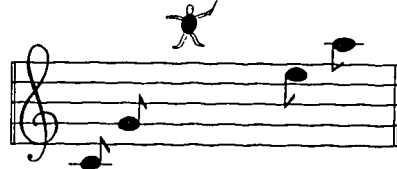

If you haven't already gotten your tickets at 75 cents each, you can obtain them from any member of the Community Club or at the door. Remember:

The Time: April 29th at 8 o'clock.

The Place: The High School Auditorium.

The Girls: "The Neighbors" of the Women's Community Club.

Narberth Choral Society

The Narberth Choral Society desires to express publicly its appreciation of the reception accorded it by the assemblage at the Public Schools last Friday night, and to thank the many interested assistants of the evening, and also, to extend the School Board especial thanks for its co-operation.

The Choral Society feels particularly proud of its orchestra, formed only within the past three weeks, and composed of 13 instruments. The Society wishes to express deep regret and sympathy to Messrs. Cox and Moore in their losses, which forced them to be absent at the concert. The Society is unusually fortunate in having in its orchestra Miss Anne Jackson, a professional musician and teacher of the violin, and is very appreciative of Miss Jackson's deep interest.

The sopranos and tenors of the Choral were given a varied and interesting entertainment Monday evening last at the Y. M. C. A. by the altos and basses, which was the outcome of the forming of two teams of the Chorus for the securing of applicants for Associate Members. Refreshments were served (of course) and the evening was thoroughly enjoyed by every one. The Narberth Novelty Orchestra furnished some good peppy music during the evening.

The Choral will immediately resume its work in the preparation of a second concert to be given before the warm weather sets in, and an outline of the program of same will be announced at a later date.

Prof. Nice stated last Monday evening that he was well pleased with the work of the Chorus, and had some very interesting surprises and plans for the Choral which would be divulged within the next week or two, which, of course, created much curiosity on the part of the men, as well as the ladies of the Chorus!

From 25 to 30 new applicants for active membership in the Choral have been received within the last week, and will be acted upon by the Director and Active Membership Committee. Application to sing in the second concert should be forwarded to Mr. F. R. Mitchell, or direct to Prof. Nice.

Price on Flies' Heads

Fifty cents for a quart of flies is the price offered to the first ten school children in both Lower Merion and Radnor Townships, provided they are delivered by the first of May.

Through the kindness of Mrs. J. Emott Caldwell, Bryn Mawr, Dr. Joseph C. Egbert, Wayne, and the Neighborhood League of Bala-Cynwyd, the General Fly Campaign Committee is able to offer to the school children of Lower Merion and Radnor Townships the special offer as an additional incentive in the eradication of the great germ carrier—the common house fly.

The Principals of the schools have been asked to receive the flies, and they will then report receipt of the flies to the General Committee.

Fifteen thousand swatters have been received by the General Committee for free distribution from Bala-Cynwyd to Wayne. These will help the children to fill all their quarts. Every fly killed now is equal to a million later in the season. This is a chance for the adults to help the children win these prizes.

The Bala-Cynwyd Committee has planned a vigorous campaign against the fly. They will co-operate with the Township Commissioners in the clean-up, and the entire territory has been divided so that every home will be covered.

All of the Fly Committee in the communities from Bala-Cynwyd to Wayne are urging their constituents to co-operate with the Commissioners of the three townships of Lower Merion, Haverford and Radnor in the "Clean-up Days"—April 26th, 27th and 28th.

Every can and pile of refuse hauled away means the elimination of a breeding place for flies and mosquitoes, and checks the spreading of disease.

A REAL ENTERTAINMENT.

The cantata and play to be given by the Women's Community Club next Friday night will be a real treat. The play, which has been in process of preparation for weeks, is one of those "homely" affairs which promotes constant chuckles and awakens amusing recollections.

In the "Shepherd Lady," Narberth will be given a splendid musical treat. The Community Club Chorus is a wonderfully well-trained organization. Mr. David Spratt, their leader, has concentrated his effort on perfect unison, modulation, and word pronunciation. Those who have observed the training which he has given to All Saints choir will appreciate the value of this exactness in detail.

This entertainment is one which no one interested in good music can afford to miss.

WORTHY OF SUPPORT.

For the third successive year, the Senior Class of the Narberth High School is to publish a large class record and general high school annual.

In past years, the classes have been faced at the end of the year by a more or less considerable financial loss, due to the fact that the proper support was not given by other than the school pupils.

Both as a matter of encouragement to this worthy effort, and as a matter of general interest, everyone interested in Narberth's young folks should see some member of the Senior Class at once and back them to the extent of subscribing to a copy of their year-book.

CHORAL SOCIETY RECEIVES CONGRATULATIONS FROM MANY SOURCES.

Our Town is pleased to announce that commendation has been received by the Choral Society from all quarters by letter and other communication. Many critical friends of the Choral coming from Philadelphia predict, after hearing the concert, an unusually bright future for the Narberth Choral Society, even in comparison with the well-known musical organizations and clubs of long training in Philadelphia, all of which will encourage the Choral toward the peak of its very best endeavors.

To the Editor of Our Town:

Rather discouraging—this April weather, with its sudden changes from heat to cold, causing gardeners to rush to cover their sweet peas and early vegetables, and blanket their cold frames to save the growing stock from being nipped. However, this is what one might expect after a warm March.

A mild winter does not seem to favor spring growth. Tulips and other bulbs show irregular development. In fact, a certain amount of cold is needed by dormant plants. This is affirmed by Botanist Coville, of the United States Department of Agriculture, in a recent paper. The winter chilling of trees, shrubs and herbaceous plants causes the transformation of stored starch into sugar, and prepares them for quick and vigorous growth when warm weather arrives. Professor Coville conducted a number of curious experiments with blueberries, various spring-blooming trees and shrubs, showing the effects of chilling and non-chilling. Trailing arbutus, kept in a greenhouse through winter, refused to bloom in spring. A sister plant, kept outdoors all winter, then brought into greenhouses, was in full flower March 27. The principle can be applied to the retarding or hastening of growth of various plants, and can be applied to seeds, cuttings, bulbs, etc.

Too much praise cannot be given to our Street Commissioner and his assistants for their regularity in collecting ashes and care of containers, and especially for their prompt and continuous cleaning of the streets.

CAMOLEN.

"CLEAN UP WEEK"

It has been decided that the first week of May shall be CLEAN UP WEEK for the Borough of Narberth. Let's get rid of all that rubbish that has been collecting in our cellars, yards and vacant lot for the past year. The Borough force will collect anything that you put out on the same days that the ashes were collected.

Geo. B. Suplee,
Street Commissioner.

MAILING LISTS

Of Interest to Old Residents

Mailing lists are frequently received at the Post Office for correction. One was recently received at our local post office containing ninety-five names, seventy-two of whom have died or have removed from Narberth. Among those listed were many without initials. The list follows:

Mr. Mulnow, Mr. Harrison, Mr. Friek, Mr. Jester, Mr. Godfrey, Rev. Mr. Stevenson, Mr. Bender, Mr. Brooks, Mr. Page, W. G. Schmitt, Edw. J. Ketchum, Mr. Hyde, Mr. Patterson, Rev. P. L. Jones, Mr. Boyle, Mr. J. C. Simpson, Mr. Owens, Mr. Lamott, Mr. Lowery, Mr. Murphy, Mr. Trotter, Dr. Town, Mr. Miller, Mr. Bellfield, Mr. Redover, Mr. Ensinger, Mr. Young, S. R. McGowen, Mr. Russell, Mr. Megargee, Mr. Belcher, Granville B. Haines, Mr. Chadwick, Michael Hatton, Percival Roberts, Mr. Montgomery.

The appended section of the list had initials, they were:

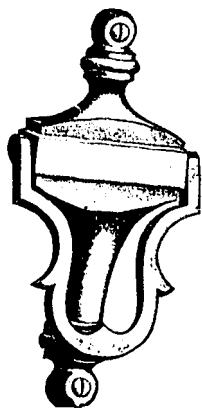

F. Prescott, J. Ketchum, Dr. Rotzell, T. Harsch, Geo. Suplee, G. Gordon, G. Clay, F. Egan, W. Williamson, R. Wright, Jno. Caldwell, Chas. Caldwell, A. H. Seemuller, A. H. Graf, W. B. Wood, L. Y. Graham, J. Hobson, A. Chambley, R. Grant, L. Hoover, Wm. Selfridge, K. Duff, J. Howenstein, W. G. Stevenson, J. R. McCoy, N. McCoy, C. A. Roberts, H. Russell, W. McClellan, F. Sadler, P. Davis, J. F. Smith, F. DuBosq, P. Wenner, F. Crist, V. Zahn, F. Zentmeyer, W. Dobbins, J. Gilroy, J. Yowell.

This list was well marked when returned to the writer. Some names were illegible. It is supposed the list was made more than 20 years ago.

CONCERNING ASH COLLECTION

During the present month we will collect ashes every two weeks, unless there is a severe change in the weather, and starting with the month of May, the collections will be made during the last week of each month.

Geo. B. Suplee,
Street Commissioner.

The Brass Knocker

RECOLLECTIONS, OBSERVATIONS AND COMMENTS BY AN OLD TIMER.

Once there was a widow whose husband had died, leaving her the immense sum of a million dollars in cash and all the rest of the money in the world in negotiable securities. After living at the best hotels for a few weeks, the widow found that she had $3.67 left to live on for the rest of her life. Having read all the popular novels, she knew that the poor widow always took in boarders. Being a widow and poor, she considered that these qualifications fitted her admirably for the position.

She therefore expended the 67 cents for a lower berth and took the next fast mail for Narberth. Immediately upon arriving there a local real estate agent seized her and proceeded to hold her a prisoner until she would agree to pay $10,000 for a $5,000 house. The inhuman treatment of this agent, who provided nothing but bread from the local bakery and milk from the local dairy for meals, so weakened her spirit that she was forced not only to sign away all her rights in this world but also to release her claim upon a seat in the first ten rows in the next. Upon reflection she did not think the bargain so bad for she had not the slightest hopes of regaining her fortune and also held the opinion that no woman would care to sit in the bald-head row anyway.

Business was very dull despite the fact that the widow's rates were the same as those of the city hotels, so she was forced to do something to bring trade. After much thought on the subject and reference to old Sunday comic sections, she suddenly received the brilliant inspiration of taking families with small children to board.

This unheard of procedure had the desired effect. The next day after the announcement a line of men, women and children extending for blocks was clamoring for admission. The income from this extensive patronage enabled the widow to meet all outstanding obligations and also to completely retire her total funded indebtedness. It had one bad result, however; the widow at once dropped from membership in the "Associated Union of American Boarding House Keepers." In the course of time she began to regret the happy evenings spent with a convivial gathering of kindred spirits, and in order to rejoin Local 659, she decided to comply with rule 3 which forbade the boarding of families with children. Before doing this she quietly entered into an agreement with the real estate men of the town, who, for the sum of one dollar to them in hand paid by the party of the first part, did thereby agree to serve all tenants with a notice; to wit "Buy or git out." By this means she preserved her self respect by rejoining the union and preserved her business by a little "flier in real estate." And that is the end of the story which tells how the first boarding house came to Narberth.

Now if you are all good little children and do not tease the kitty, perhaps we will tell you some more stories about our town.

Old Timer.

Scout News

The flag at our headquarters was flying at half-mast last Friday and Saturday on account of the death of one of our members, Ernest Cox.

At the last meeting promotions were given to the following: Wells Wanamaker to patrol leader, Francis Lambert to patrol leader, Thomas Merkel to assistant patrol leader, and Robert Patten to assistant Patrol leader.

The four patrols were assigned duties around our new headquarters, which we are going to be very particular about. We hope to make it a place for Narberth to be proud of.

NEW MOVIES FOR ARDMORE

A plot of ground on Lancaster Avenue, Ardmore, had just been purchased by the Main Line Amusement Company. They plan to erect a commodious theatre on this property.

The plans for the building include a theatre with a seating capacity of 2,000 and several stores and offices fronting on Lancaster Avenue.

The Main Line Amusement Company is composed of well known men of the Main Line. The officers are Charles H. Powell, Ardmore, president; F. Von A. Caheen, Jr., Haverford, vice president; William J. Ira Portes, Ardmore, treasurer; Mayer E. Herman, Esq., Philadelphia, secretary. Ground will be broken this month for the new building.

ATTENDS GIBBONEY FUNERAL

David B. Weaver of 229 Narberth Ave., Narberth, Pa., attended the funeral services held last Thursday, April 14th, in Philadelphia, over the remains of D. Clarence Gibboney, who met a violent death some months ago in Mexico. A strange coincidence in connection therewith is the fact that fifty years ago, in 1865, George Gibboney, an uncle of the late D. Clarence Gibboney, also met a violent death in the mountains of Montana, having been caught in a snow slide while he and two partners were prospecting for gold in Immigrant Gulch, north of the present city of Livingston. Mr. George Gibboney and Mr. Weaver had been working a claim in partnership and only a few days before Mr. Gibboney met his fate they had dissolved partnership.

DEATHS.

Samuel Earnest Cox, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Cox, of 110 Merion Avenue, died Friday, April 15th, at the age of thirteen.

He was a member of the Narberth Boy Scouts, and was well liked, not only by his boy friends, but by everyone with whom he came in contact. He is survived by two sisters.

Word has been received that Mrs. L. W. Essex, of Farmington, Michigan, formerly a resident of Narberth, was instantly killed in an automobile accident last week.

LINE FORMS ON THE RIGHT

Just before the service the minister was called into the vestibule by a young couple who asked that he marry them. He answered he had not time then but that if they would wait until after the sermon he would be glad to accommodate them. Accordingly, just before the benediction, he announced: "Will those who wish to be married today please come forward?" Thirteen women and one man stepped up.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS CONFERENCE.

The third County Conference of the League will be held on Thursday, April 28th, in the Merion Cricket Club, Haverford.

The morning session will be opened at 10.30 A. M., by Mrs. H. T. Schwartz, County Chairman, followed by greetings from Miss Gertrude Ely, Chairman for Lower Merion Township, the hostess club.

An address by Mrs. R. J. Ralston, Chairman of Montgomery County Federation of Women's Clubs, and the usual business meeting with reports from committees will conclude the morning program.

Mrs. John O. Miller, State Chairman and Mrs. F. Louis Slade, Regional Chairman, will be the speakers of the afternoon.

Narberth members and friends of the League are urgently requested to come to this meeting. It is an unusual privilege to have both Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Slade on the program at the same meeting.

A luncheon will be served at the Merion Cricket Club, for 75c. Anyone wishing luncheon reservation, kindly phone Narberth 1638 M. by Monday, April 25th, at the latest.

CONGRESSIONAL MEDAL FOR UNKNOWN HEROES

While America is preparing to render homage to one of her own unidentified soldiers of the World War by transporting his body from the battlefield of France, it seems certain that this nation also will pay a symbolic tribute to the unknown warriors buried last Armistice Day in Westminster Abbey in London and under the Arc de Triomphe in Paris. It has been proposed that America bestow upon the unknown French and British heroes her highest military award, the Congressional Medal of Honor. While the proposal was being advanced at the recent meeting of the National Executive Committee of The American Legion in Washington by James A. Drain, committee member of the District of Columbia, bills providing for the conferring of the decoration were being introduced by Representative Royal C. Johnson, of South Dakota, and Senator Elkins, of West Virginia, both ex-service men.

MOCK HEROES AND MOCK HEROICS

Pretenders have often disgraced the uniform, and the law justly recognizes the unpardonable nature of the offense. The wearing of the button or badge of an organization like the American Legion by those who do not belong to it is equally reprehensible; and the bill, passed recently by the New York Legislature and just signed by the Governor, making this a misdemeanor is in accord with sound public policy. Supposed membership in a body high in popular esteem gives an advantage to those who do not emulate truthful James in avoiding "small deceits or any sinful games." Borrowed glory has enabled many a crook to ply his trade in comparative security.

Yet it is quite likely that many of the wearers of insignia to which they were not entitled have been inspired more by vanity than by criminal intent. The desire to emulate deeds of valor or virtue is an honorable one, but it is often carried to dishonorable lengths. To the expansive and impulsive nature the desire to draw a long bow in autobiography is well-nigh overwhelming. And the dramatic instinct in humanity leads many to seek to dramatize their own lives with small regard for facts. The lies that children tell are illustrations of this instinct.

George IV of England, Sherry's "fat friend," tried to invest his sordid career of self-indulgence with the legend that he had fought at Waterloo. "I have often heard your highness say so," was the Iron Duke's reply when the royal braggart once appealed to him for confirmation. It may be that George came at last actually to believe in the truth of his own falsehood. "What I tell you three times is true," said the teller of the tale of "The Hunting of the Shark," and George's boasts had not been limited to three. There have been others whose fighting was done in imagination.

But the plain badge or button of service is as much a sacredly personal thing as the D. S. M. or the Croix de Guerre. Whether with harmless or evil intent, it is not to be worn by those who have no claim to it. The corps of mock heroes needs no further recruiting.

The above department should be of greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow townsman, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register. As it is difficult for those contributing, their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printer list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and business or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 3 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.

For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate one hundred per cent. Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our association in the Great War; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, State and Nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.—Preamble to the Constitution of the American Legion.
